Attended National FHA Convention

Miss Teresa Cyrus, rising senior at Appomattox County High School and the newly elected State Vice-President for the Future Homemakers of America, was selected to represent Virginia with 25 other girls at the National Convention held at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis, Missouri the week of July 12-15.

There were over 1300 other young women and men attending this National Leadership Meeting from other states.

The National Leadership Meeting theme was "Action In a Changing World". This convention challenged members to open themselves up to new people, places and ideas. The leadership learned helped members to use their special experiences in laying the groundwork for back-home chapter projects that improve personal and family lives.

Teresa travelled by plane to St. Louis, MO on Sunday, July 11. Highlights of the convention were going to the Starlight Roof and The Cave, viewing candidates for National offices, Leaderlabs, a dinner-cruise on the Steamship Admiral down the Mississippi, M E Shops, entertainment, state parties, attending the play "Mame" starring Angela Lansbury, a career fair and a special luncheon.

Virginia's uniforms were red, white and blue clothing, the hat you see Teresa wearing in the above photo, and flags.

CHOIRS FROM NEW HOPE WILL PRESENT MUSICAL AT LIBERTY BAPTIST

The 25-voice Adult and Youth Choir of New Hope Baptist Church will present the musical "Alleluia" this coming Sunday night, July 25, at 7:30 p.m. at Liberty Baptist Church.

"Alleluia" is a contemporary musical by Bill and Gloria Gaither and Ronn Huff, with an old, old story blended with a full orchestral accompaniment on a pre-recorded tape background. Anyone who appreciates good music will be moved by the beauty and message of the music itself.

Add this to the spoken word in testimony and dialogue, the singing of the Choir, the solos by Teresa Elder, James Franklin, Carroll Goodrich, Tamara Nash, Ann Reynolds, and Calvin Smith, and you have a top-notch musical.

Rev. Clarence H. Davis, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church, will serve as narrator of the musical. Mr. Barry Elder will be directing the musical.

The public is cordially invited to come, see, hear and experience "Alleluia" on this coming Sunday night, July 25 at 7:30 p.m. at Liberty Baptist Church.

Evangelist Howard Baldwin To Lead In Local Bicentennial Crusade At New Hope

"Sermons In Art" will be a special feature of the special Bicentennial Evangelistic Crusade at the New Hope Baptist Church in Vera, beginning on Friday night, July 30, at 7:30 p.m.

The New Hope Baptist Church has invited Evangelist Howard Baldwin from Richmond, Va., to lead the Crusade. Mr. Baldwin has led churches across America and throughout Great Britain in evangelistic crusades. He is a veteran proclaimer of the message of Christ.

Mr. Baldwin is a graduate history major and received his Master of Divinity Degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky. He is an ordained minister; and before entering the ministry of evangelism, he served for 10 years as a pastor in Virginia, Indiana, Chicago, and overseas in England.

A unique feature of the Crusade will be Mr. Baldwin's "Sermons in Art" which are visual portrayals of the Gospel, drawn during the service. The message is given in stereophonic sound with a musical background while the picture is reproduced in fluorescent pastels. The full brilliance of the art is brought out by the use of ultraviolet lights, making the picture come alive with living color. The "Sermons in Art" have a wide appeal to young and old alike.

Mr. Baldwin's messages stress that the only hope for mankind today is not in political revolution but in a "spiritual revolution." He has stated that "what man needs today is far more than a mere physical heart transplant; men must have a spiritual heart transplant performed by the Great Physician, Jesus Christ." The Crusade will feature the Bicentennial theme, "Proclaim Liberty." The series of services begin on Friday night, July 30, and extend through Wednesday night, Aug. 4, at 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend each and every service.
